Any amount owed AWC by the Subcontractor pursuant to the indemnity may be deducted from any payments owed by AWC to the Subcontractor for the performance of this Subcontract.

 - (1) During the period of suspension of performance, each party will inform the other of any conditions that may reasonably affect the potential for resumption of performance.
 - (2) When AWC determines that the funding insufficiency is resolved, it will give the Subcontractor written notice to resume performance, and Subcontractor shall resume performance.
 - (3) Upon the receipt of notice under b. (2), if Subcontractor is unable to resume performance of this Subcontract or if the Subcontractor's proposed resumption date is not acceptable to AWC and an acceptable date cannot be negotiated, AWC may terminate the Subcontract by giving written notice to the Subcontractor. AWC shall be liable only for payment in accordance with the terms of this Subcontract for services rendered prior to the retroactive date of termination.

The provisions of the "Treatment of Assets" clause shall apply in such property transfer.

The AWC shall pay to the Subcontractor the agreed upon price, if separately stated, for completed work and services accepted by AWC and the amount agreed upon by the Subcontractor and AWC for (a) completed work and services for which no separate price is stated, (b) partially completed work and services, (c) other property or services which are accepted by AWC, and (d) the protection and preservation of the property, unless the termination is for default, in which case AWC shall determine the extent of the liability. Failure to agree with such determination shall be a dispute within the meaning of the "Disputes" clause for this Subcontract. The AWC may withhold from any amounts due to the Subcontractor such sum as AWC determines to be necessary to protect AWC against potential loss or liability.

The rights and remedies of AWC provided in this section shall not be exclusive and are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law under this Subcontract.

Youth Sports

Vancouver Parks, Recreation & Cultural Services offers exciting summer sports camps and clinics at four locations throughout our community. This Youth Sports program serves participants ages 4-10, who are in greatest need of structured supervision. Additional funding will enable us to expand our capacity from 150 students to up to 200 students daily. Program participants will engage in social connection and physical activities. Scholarships will help fill the gap to make programs affordable and accessible. Vancouver's Youth Sports program promotes physical activity to ensure all students are active and feel included. Our program is designed to spark curiosity and help campers learn and gain confidence! Campers will participate in safe, well-organized group activities, helping provide a return to normalcy. Our Youth Sports camps and clinics allow families who have struggled with childcare needs to have a safe, enriching place for their children to experience physical activity during the workday, with most of our offerings taking place outdoors. Soccer skills clinics allow all players an age-appropriate level of training in an environment that is challenging, exciting, rewarding, but most importantly FUN to promote social emotional well-being. As individual skills are gained, the rest of the game becomes easier both to teach and learn. Each session is built around facilitating the development of the skills necessary to move and control the ball well and to be prepared for league play. These clinics meet for 1 hour outside each week for 6 weeks. The youth sport camps introduce the fundamentals of sports through positive games, drills, and scrimmages in a non-competitive environment. Social connections are acquired as participants develop communication skills, work together, cheer each other on, and share ideas. Soccer, track, and all sport camps are conducted outdoors except for basketball camps, which run indoors. Camps are 1-3 hours, meeting for 5 days with weekly registrations. We offer a scholarship program that defers 50% of the cost for camps and clinics. This can be used throughout the summer for as many weeks as families need. To date, approximately $5,000 in registration fees have been deferred for Vancouver summer camps. Our Sports camps and clinics serve ages 4-10. Our Sports camps will run from June 27 to August 19. Our Soccer Skills Clinics will run from June 11 to August 19. SEEK program funds will allow us to increase our Youth Sports capacity as COVID space restrictions are eliminated, while ensuring scholarships are not limited.
